Fall Ball is on!

The North Chatham Cardinals commenced their second season of fall ball on Sunday, September 13th 2009 . The coaching and support staff welcomed back returning players as well as many new faces for six Sundays of lacrosse fundamentals and scrimmaging. This fall ball season also featured girl's lacrosse instruction , a welcomed addition to the North Chatham Cardinals family.

The Cardinals' program could not be successful without the kids for participating, the parents for chauffeuring, and volunteers Doug Castleman, Jeff and Lisa Marie Taylor, Randy Cox, Tate Hamlet, Chris Mann and Sally Bond and Taylor Poitras (awesome girls' coaches) for organizing and running the teams. So thank you for all you all do to get this great sport of lacrosse going in Chatham County.

Go Cardinals!

Cardinals Hang with the Heels

Cardinal players, family and friends enjoyed a great evening of lacrosse on October 16th as the UNC lacrosse alumni, coached by our own Coach Cox, took on the UNC lacrosse team. Coach Cox made sure that the Cardinal players got to meet the UNC team after the game. The Tarheels were more than willing to say hello and sign a few autographs. Big thanks to Coach Cox and Go Heels!

For Cardinal players, collecting autographs was the name of the game after the UNC Alumni lacrosse contest.
